Instructors:

Paula Kierkegaard from Redmond, WA, is a USDF Certified Instructor through 2nd level (one of the first three to earn certification), and a medalist with almost 50 years competitive background with horses. She is a USEF "R" judge and has an extensive classical background through Grand Prix. Her students are showing through GP (six) are now producing their own GP horses, and are nationally ranked. Paula actively clinics throughout the U.S. and she aims to train people and horses for riding and life and to give to all students a sincere love for learning.

Sarah Martin is a USDF Certified Instructor through 4th level and has her Bronze, Silver and Gold Medals from USDF. She maintains a very active training facility outside Boulder, CO. She and her husband specialize in making matches of horses and their riders and training them up through the FEI levels. Sarah particularly enjoys imparting lessons that riders can take home and work on themselves and has an extensive library of exercises for riders to learn to feel and balance their horse.

Louise St. Armour from Whitehall, MI, is presently in the USEF "r" judges program, has attended ten USDF instructor certification workshops, and has her USDF Silver Medal. She is currently training with Nancy Smith with two horses, and has trained with Gerhard Politz, Maryal Barnett, Betsy Steiner, David deWispelaere, Tigger Montague. She enjoys working with all types of horses and riders. Her students range from an 8 year old to a 78 year old, on horses from four to Twenty eight. Helping them develop a secure seat and correct basics is most satisfying, as well as showing and moving up the levels. She has designed freestyles at every level (to I1)
