Bella is a lovely mare who has great potential to move up the levels in dressage. She is currently schooling 1st and starting 2nd level. Naturally balanced, uphill and has a powerful hind end. She is athletic and likes to work. She has done some jumping in the arena and in open fields. She enjoys jumping and takes them quietly without rushing. Bella actively participates in clinics with top clinicians and attends yearly Adult Dressage camps, and has done so since she was four. Bella would be a good horse for anyone from an Advanced Beginner to an Advanced rider. She lunges and long-lines beautifully. Bella has been spayed, therefore no monthly cramping and coming into season! Price $20,000

Welden is a RPSI Premium foal out of dressage and jumping champion bloodlines. His sire "Wake Up" won the 6 year old National Championship this year in 2011 and represented the U.S. in Germany last year as a 5 year old, and was invited back this year. Welden's Dam Rolex was 4th in the Nation in Training Level in 2004 and is from a very respected Dutch Approved stallion E'Sops Fable who was an accomplished high jumper, and performed well in the dressage arena. Both parents are from excellent lineage and no doubt Welden has a lot of potential in dressage, jumping or both. He is very sweet and has an easy going disposition. He should be at least 16 hands or taller. Price $8,000

Rolex may be small for a Dutch/Thoro cross, but she can do her job! Her sire was 17.2 hds. and Dam 16.1 hds., but Rolex ended up being smaller. She was schooled up to 2nd level dressage, took a break, and had a foal, Welden. Rolex would love to make a junior or amateur adult rider happy as she is an all around great mare to do lower level dressage, jumping, eventing and even trails. She is "very attractive" and would take the ribbons in the Hunter arena too!
Rolex took 1st place at her first Eventing Show several years ago with top dressage scores and flawless jumping rounds in the arena and field. She had never done anything like that, and proved that she can do just about anything. Price $5,000
