Letter From The President

Thank you to all the members who attended the Annual General Membership Meeting, Banquet and Year-End Awards Ceremony. The Tulsa Country Club was a beautiful setting and their staff was great to work with. The food was excellent! Thank you to Pam Rhodes and her parents who obtained permission for us to use the facility.

A big thank you to Diane Smith who organized the AGM, including the awards. As usual she came up with some nice awards: jackets for the Recognized Show Champions, vests for the Schooling Show Champions, captain's chairs for Reserve Recognized Show Champions, and the saddle pads for the Schooling Show Reserve Champions. We welcome members' input and ideas for next year's AGM and awards ceremony. The AGM will be in the Oklahoma City area next year and is being organized by Marilyn Coffey.

We have a couple new board members. Brian Rogge's appointment to the board was confirmed by the membership. He will serve to the end of this year. Marta Koenig was elected for a new 3-year term. Emily Nelson and Marilyn Coffey were elected to 3 year terms. I remain President, Marilyn was elected VP, Robin Grain-Walkup is Secretary, and Marta will continue as Treasurer.

We also have a new newsletter editor, Melissa Furman. Thank you, Melissa, for volunteering.

There are many other positions we need to fill. Some positions are for the Spring Show, some are to help the ODS Board by doing some of the leg work we need prior to some decisions making. Check out the Volunteer page on the website. Available positions are updated frequently. It is easy to sign up online.

We look forward to an exciting year with many activities being planned by the Chapters and the ODS Board. We are always looking for ideas. They don't all have to be horse oriented. A few fun, horseless activities would be great also. Please let us know if there is something you would like to see happen under the ODS umbrella.

Happy Riding,
Pamela DeVore

A FOCUS FOR TRAINING: PREPARATION IS THE BASIS OF THE EXTENDED TROT

When your test calls for an extended trot on the diagonal, you must prepare your horse on the short side. Try to engage your horse a little more by riding well through the corner with the inside leg firmly on the horse and the outside rein giving support and balance. After the corner, the horse should be straightened and a half halt should precede the first extended stride.

Once the horse executes the extension, you must move your hands a little forward to permit the neck to stretch and to give more freedom of the shoulder. Keep the rhythm in your hands. Watch that your horse does not fall on the forehand or start running.

Give a half halt when crossing the center line to avoid these problems.

New ODS Website Launches for 2018

The new ODS website www.dressageoklahoma.org is up and running and is full of useful information. It will continue to build and grow to become a robust resource tool for Oklahoma Dressage Society members' utilization.

Members can renew memberships or interested riders can join the club. Registrants can select two payment options. Payments are encouraged to be made online via credit card for an instant, accurate registration process and green-earth paperless efforts. Payments may also be made via check. Checks are to be mailed in with the invoice that the system emails directly to them after registration is filled out. After renewing or registering for the first time, members can then set up an account which enables them to publish personalized information about their horse, showing, etc. This is a great way to build a fun, friendly community of classical & Western dressage riders!

Welcome, Newly Registered Horses!

Virtually every month, new horses are registered in the ODS database. Horses can be registered annually or for a lifetime membership. Look below to see if you know any of these Oklahoma horses.

USDF Region 9's Evie Tumlin Memorial Fund!

The goal of the Evie Tumlin Memorial Fund is to provide financial assistance to Adult Amateur riders who currently reside in USDF Region 9, to aid in their development in dressage. Grants will typically range in the amount of $250 – $750, to be used for educational experiences that will further the applicant's knowledge of dressage and are in addition to the applicant's typical training plan. These events may include camps, clinics, riding lessons, etc. Additional consideration will be given to riders who also participate in eventing, as well as to those who have a history of volunteer work related to dressage and/or eventing. The Dressage Foundation oversees this fund.

For more information or to apply, contact USDF Region 9 via the "Contact Us" tab at usdfregion9.org.

Volunteers Needed at ODS Events

Janice Dulak Symposium

March 9-11, 2018 @ Joyful Noise Farm in Pryor

Do you want to communicate better through a more balanced seat? Come participate in Nationally renowned Dressage Pilates Instructor Janice Dulak's Pilates symposium March 9-11 in Pryor, OK at Joyful Noise Farm. Janice will begin the symposium with an informative presentation which was presented at the 2016 USDF Convention. The lecture will focus on the Dressage Seat and the problematic muscle imbalances that lead to a problematic seat and interferes with correct biomechanics. Mornings will include Pilates for Dressage Riders. The symposium will continue with mounted lessons on position and correct biomechanics mainly at the walk and trot. The camp is for 12 adult amateurs and auditors are welcome. Registration must be postmarked by March 2.

10 reasons to make a new year's resolution to become a better partner for your horse.....Ridermanship® and learn how your Psoas, abdominals and gluts work together—or don't, for proper riding.

2. Be prepared to change. This course is about changing your "way of going." Stop being a pedestrian on a horse and begin to retrain your body to move in a different way! After all, if you do what you have always done, you will get what you always get.

3. You will learn that dressage is not a mystery. A half halt is just the reorganizing of your self-carriage. But do you know what rider self-carriage is?

4. Learn to self-carry like a dancer. You will develop your body to have the presence and grace of a dancer, or the elegance of an FEI rider.

5. You will learn exercises...but you will learn to do them in a way that will CHANGE your posture. Getting fit is ok, but it doesn't help change the way you carry your skeleton around. Doing exercise without being "through" is like doing shoulder in without being on the bit. It is just movement. Learning HOW to do the exercises while being through, on the bit, engaged in the haunches correctly is key to changing how you self-carry.

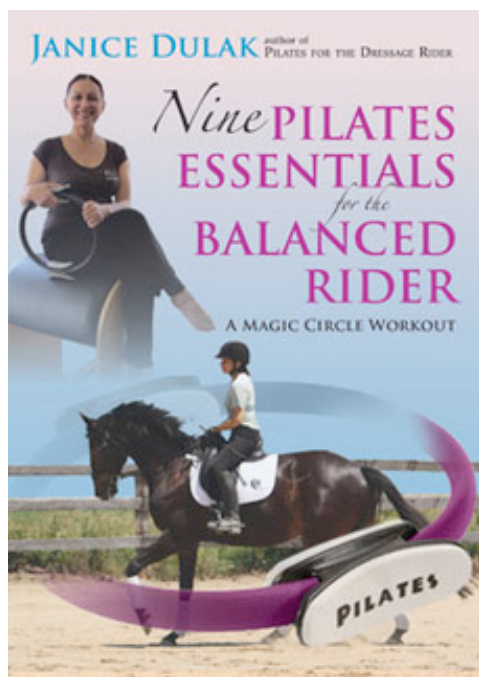

6. Are you tired of your seat leaving the saddle and bouncing on your horse? Go watch a video of yourself— if you see space between your seat and the saddle, you are banging on your horse's back with every stride. Think about what that does to your horse. This course will give you the tools to change your riding position and biomechanics to stabilize your spine while being able to open and close your hips freely, much like a saloon door will swing open and close...only it will be your horse swinging through your hips. Only then will your full seat breeches help you stay in the saddle :)

7. Frustrated your horse goes beautifully with your trainer, but you can't seem to get him to move that way? It's not because you are not capable. It is because you have never been taught how to use your body that invites the horse to move underneath you. Dressage trainers are not body experts—they are horse experts. Very few have the same expertise in how the human body works to be able to troubleshoot your physical issues.

8. You owe it to your horse. If my husband and I wanted to do ballroom dancing, and he took lessons to learn how, but I just showed up on the dance floor without any training...how fair is that? I would block his progress with my untrained movements.

9. You will do anything for your horse. Buy it a new saddle, get the best saddle pads, the best bridle. How much would you pay to make your horse comfortable?

10. It is the right thing to do. It is hard to face yourself. I know. As a dancer I faced myself every day in the studio in a leotard and tights. It is not easy to realize it's not your horse, but it's you. It is a brave rider who will look at themselves and commit to change.

Green Country Chapter Adult Camp with Janice Dulak
March 9-11, 2018

Janice Dulak, a former professional dancer and now a nationally renowned Dressage Pilates Instructor, will begin the camp with an informative power point on the Dressage Seat which was presented at the 2016 USDF Convention. The lecture focuses on the muscle imbalances that lead to a problematic seat and interfere with correct biomechanics. Mornings will include Pilates for Dressage Riders in which auditors are encouraged to participate. The camp will continue with mounted lessons on position and correct biomechanics mainly at the walk and trot. This camp is suitable for riders of all levels and both Amateur and Open riders.

Spaces for the camp will be filled on a first come, first serve basis according to postmark. Registration is not considered complete until registration form is submitted along with fees paid in full. IN FOCUS: CLINICIAN RAINEE BOYD

I started my career on horses as was the youngest member of a drill team at the age of 5, riding a polo pony that my dad had purchased. I rode every event that I could get to without a horse trailer. My sister was a trick rider! My parents took me to everyone that said that they were an instructor. Let me tell you where my legs were on the last one, they were almost to the middle of my horses shoulders. I will never forget that because when I met Neil Mannenbach at my first lesson my legs hurt so bad I could barely move them. Of course Neil, my first "Dressage" instructor, helped me get them back in place. I met Neil when I was 13 and I saw him on a horse called "Elegant Sam." Sam was a 17.2 hand Chestnut Anglo Arab with a blaze and 4 white stockings. They were so awesome to watch. That is when this girl decided that is what I want to do -- ride for the rest of my life. I started riding with Neil from then on. Of course when I moved to Oklahoma (from Illinois) no one rode "Dressage" or an "English Saddle" so I got asked a lot of questions about my saddle and why my horse was going sideways. I did a Dressage Exhibition at a rodeo and during my canter zig zags I heard a man in the crowd say loudly "that horse is drunk he can't even go in a straight line." My heart was broken that others didn't see Dressage as the beautiful sport that I saw it as. My horses that I have ridden have all been retired now, and due to health issues I am not competing much anymore but I absolutely love teaching! Back in "the day," when Neil suggested that I should teach, I nearly started that very day, eager to spread what I had learned from him! I absolutely love seeing a rider "get it" when they discover they can do it TOO! I call "Home", my 25-acre geriatric horse ranch in Newkirk Ok.

I'm hosting a clinic for beginners through 2nd Level March 24-25. Please contact me to register for the clinic or to schedule lessons: Raineeboyd@gmail.com or call at 580-761-7951.

I wish you many happy transitions!

-- Rainee

USDF Announces Sport Horse Education Programs for 2018

Lexington, KY (January 30, 2018) - The United States Dressage Federation™ (USDF) is pleased to announce three exciting and diverse opportunities for sport horse education in 2018. In regards to the upcoming opportunities, Kristi Wysocki, co-chair of the USDF Sport Horse Committee says, "We are very excited about the programs planned for 2018, in various parts of the country, and are thrilled to be working with some new venues, in addition to venues we've worked with many times before. We will have programs in both the south and the northwest this year, areas that have not held sport horse educational events for quite some time. There will be multiple opportunities for members, and non-members alike, to partake in a variety of sport horse related events."

The 2018 Youth/Young Adult Dressage Sport Horse Breeders Seminar will be offered for participants ages 14-27, and will be held June 22-24, at the beautiful Oak Hill Ranch in Folsom, LA. This exciting educational opportunity will be led by USEF 'S' and DSHB 'R Judge Susan Mandas, with the support of Regina Milliken. Participants in this course will have an orientation on Friday evening, followed by two full days at Oak Hill Ranch, where lessons specific to mare and stallion management, as well as handling and training young horses, will be presented. Attendees will also be given the unique opportunity to observe an inspection held by the Oldenburg Horse Breeders' Society North American Division of the GOV.

The 2018 USDF Sport Horse Seminar, to be held in conjunction with the USEF Dressage Sport Horse Breeding Judges Clinic, has been scheduled for August 5-6 at DG Bar Ranch in Hanford, CA. The event will be instructed by USEF 'S' and DSHB 'R Judges Kristi Wysocki and Hilda Gurney, and will serve as a prerequisite for becoming a USEF-licensed Dressage Sport Horse Breeding judge. This seminar is also an outstanding opportunity for riders, breeders, owners, and trainers to learn about the roles that conformation and movement can play in a horse's competitive success, as well as how to evaluate horses for their dressage sport horse potential. USDF President George Williams sees this seminar as a unique opportunity for attendees and "another great example of how USDF can work closely with US Equestrian. By holding the USEF Dressage Sport Horse Breeding Judges Clinic in conjunction with the USDF Sport Horse Seminar, it recognizes the importance and quality of the education and training provided at these events." For additional information regarding the USEF Dressage Sport Horse Breeding Judges Clinic component of the event, which is scheduled for August 6-7, 2018, please contact US Equestrian via Bailey Bianco, at bbianco@usef.org.

The 2018 USDF Sport Horse Prospect Development Forum has been scheduled for October 20-21, at Sonnenberg Farm in Sherwood, OR. USDF is excited to be able to bring Scott Hassler and Michael Bragdell back to serve as the instructors for the forum, where riders and auditors will learn correct training strategies and building blocks for training the young dressage horse. This forum is open to anyone with the goal of developing a consistent training foundation for sport horse prospects. For more information about USDF's sport horse education offerings, contact the USDF office at sporthorse@usdf.org, or call (859) 971-2277.

Thank You, USDF!

The primary objective of the USDF National Education Initiative (NEI) is to create and support new and affordable programs to engage members. GMOs hosting NEI Programs can be confident they are delivering high caliber instruction and educational content consistent with classical principles of dressage and the Pyramid of Training. NEI Events are USDF University accredited and members who attend automatically earn University credits.

Participation in the National Education Initiative demonstrates commitment to providing quality educational opportunities and the promotion of classically correct dressage training at all levels and in all locales.

ODS has been approved to receive a $1000 grant to apply toward the Anne Gribbons Symposium! This comes from the National Education Initiative from USDF. These grants are designed to help support GMOs as they bring educational opportunities to their members. The generosity of USDF/NEI is significantly helping ODS keep prices down for both riders and auditors participating in the symposium. If you have a moment, please send a word of thanks to the kind, supportive folks at USDF!

Thank You, Green Country Arabian Horse Association!

ODS sends a big "Thank You" to our friends at the Green Country Arabian Horse Association for their generous donation of $500 that will go toward providing breakfast snacks and lunch at ODS's upcoming Symposium with Anne Gribbons being held April 28-29 at The Redlands in El Reno, Oklahoma. We are so grateful, and look forward to our two organizations working together to further the beauty of Dressage. In fact, two of our ODS professionals will be scribing for GCAHA at their upcoming recognized show to be held at the Tulsa Fairgrounds on March 30 and April 1.

US Equestrian Lettering Program

You don't have to be a record setting quarterback, point guard or track star to letter in junior high or high school sports anymore. The US Equestrian is writing a new chapter in the recognition of student athletes – one that honors Equestrians.

The US Equestrian Athlete Lettering Program is open to equestrian athletes in all breeds or disciplines who are currently members of US Equestrian or become US Equestrian members. Students participating in the program need to record 100 hours of riding or training and three competitions of any level or type to complete the requirements for that year. The program runs from June 1-May 31 of each year and will honor those who document their training and competition involvement by awarding emblems and pins.

Students may apply retroactively for previous years if they are still in grades 5-12 and can provide verification for each year. Seniors must submit all documentation by June 15 of their graduating year.

To learn more, visit usef.org and click on the Youth Programs option under the Start Riding tab. Questions? Email lettering@usef.org or call 859-258-2472

ODS Website: Registration Links Available & Profile Updates Needed

Many ODS members have already utilized the new website for registrations and information and have found that it's easy to use. Sue Twitty and Brian Rogge have worked diligently to build a robust website for ODS members so that useful information is readily available and event registrations are only a click away.

If you haven't already renewed your ODS membership for the new year, please do so now before show season begins. Show points only count for renewed memberships. Registration links for shows and clinics are also available online, through the Event Calendar.

Also, please update your profile online. This will aid in keeping accurate information in the member database, and allows for other members to reach you when needed. In your profile you can post photos and opt to provide information such as email and phone numbers.
