Letter From The President

OK, the rain can stop now. At least in eastern Oklahoma! I'm sitting here watching it rain... again! Grass will be greening up when the sun finally gets a chance to come out for a couple of days. Summer will be here before we know it!

I hope all the adults in ODS have taken advantage of the great opportunity offered by our Green Country Chapter in bringing Janice Dulak to us. What a treat to have her here in Oklahoma to share her fantastic knowledge!

We are looking at the option of having Anne Gibbons' book available for purchase to all who attend the Spring Symposium. If enough individuals who will not be able to attend the clinic are also interested in ordering the book, we may be able to mail them out also. This is a great fund raising opportunity brought to us by ODS member Diane Smith. We can buy them at wholesale pricing and then we can sell them for less than retail price. As a bonus, we are hoping Anne will be able to autograph all of them for us!

Please talk to all of your ODS friends about renewing ODS memberships for 2018. It might be good to verify that your membership is updated so all points count for year-end awards. There have been mix-ups in the past with non-renewed memberships and points didn't count toward awards that they normally would have received if their membership had been renewed. It's easy to check. Just go to the Directory on the ODS website @ www.dressageoklahoma.org. And it's easy to renew! The form is in this newsletter, or just renew online.

Finally, printed directories have been ordered and will be sent out soon. Stay tuned for more info about these.

Happy Riding,
Pamela DeVore
ODS President

A FOCUS FOR TRAINING:
THE THOUGHTFUL RIDER
-LIFE FORCE ENERGY-

Energy is so crucial in our daily lives. In addition to helping us make sense of the entire universe, the story of our lives revolves around how to harness and understand this energy and the relationship of how its philosophy and mechanics work. This living force or energy is the same for dressage horse and if harnessed there is unimaginable grace and power in the flow of energy. And within the different exercises it is that life force energy that is transformed from one form to another.

It is for this very reason that modern dressage, with its shortened necks and neck manipulations as a form of elasticizing the horse makes no sense and goes contrary to every principle known with the rest of life. Instead, it locks the poll and the horse is unable to turn its head left or right. It prevents the aids and impulsion to go through, creating stiffness in other parts of the body as well as numbness and tension in the mind.

The neck belongs to the horse in its entirety with a soft poll to allow for a swinging back and for the hind legs to step under the center of gravity. The idea is the harnessing of energy in the partnership with the horse and not of submissiveness and dominance. We need to get back to riding the horse from the hind legs, where the energy is found, to the front, where the energy is harnessed.

This information may be subject to change*

Throughout the competition year, dressage prospect and breeding stock horses compete to earn their qualification to compete in the USDF Breeders Championship Series Finals. The USDF Breeders Championship Series offers competitive opportunities for horses, in both in-hand and materiale classes, as well as allowing owners, trainers, and breeders unique opportunities to showcase their horses. Kristi Wysocki and Natalie DiBerardinis, Co-Chairs of the USDF Sport Horse Committee said, “We are excited to announce the locations for the 2018 USDFBCS Finals competitions, and are welcome some new venues, as hosts. This year we are also excited to include the debut of the Three-Year-Old Prospect Award. Each USDFBCS Final will present this award to the three-year-old horse with the highest combined score, from their in-hand and materiale championship classes.”

The USDFBCS is made possible by the generous support of our supporting sponsors, 2 White Feet, Inc and Hilltop Farm, Inc. For more information about the USDF Breeders Championship Series, contact sporthorse@usdf.org, or call (859) 971-2277.

Sponsor & Advertising Opportunities for Spring Recognized Show in Tulsa

On May 5 & 6, 2018, The Oklahoma Dressage Society will again host its United States Dressage Federation Annual Horse Show at Expo Square in Tulsa, OK.

This show is recognized as a premier equestrian event and draws exhibitors from around the region including Arkansas, Missouri, Kansas, and Texas. Last year's horse show drew over one hundred horse and rider combinations, thirty sponsors and two hundred spectators who came together to support, compete and socialize. We are working to exceed that number this year.

The Oklahoma Dressage Society is a 501(c)(3) Charitable Organization. ODS promotes and encourages men, women, girls and boys from the age of eight through senior citizens to participate in the equestrian sport of "Dressage" (French for "training"). Some people describe Dressage as "ballet" on horseback and also associate it with the famous Lipizzaner Stallions. This Olympic sport originally incorporated the Greeks' methods of training their warhorses. It has evolved into a complex, demanding, and extremely rewarding sport that teaches the young and old responsibility and sportsmanship. Additionally, Dressage is one of the only sports where men and women compete as equals. Today, dressage encompasses equine activities including, training that is used with various other and pleasure riding. There are but not limited to, jumping, driving and incorporating horses with children (handicapped to autistic) many therapeutic benefits when and veterans (injured to PTSD). With the recent addition of Western Dressage, the influence of dressage has seen great growth.

The Oklahoma Dressage Society extends to you an invitation to be part of this equestrian experience. Due to the financial limitations of our organization, we seek sponsorships and support from businesses, restaurants, and the community to ensure a successful event. Sponsorship is available at many levels. We are in need of any donations in the form of funding, gift certificates, silent auction items, etc. Details are listed within the pages of this newsletter issue.

In return for your generosity, we will provide you or your business with a tax-deductible donation receipt along with the sponsorship benefits (attached) that apply. All donations are greatly appreciated!

Sincerely,
Roberta Clark
